

2009 STUDENT CLUB OF THE YEAR

The Student Club of the Year award has been established to acknowledge and recognize the student club that has had the most impact and made significant contributions to the University of Connecticut, Stamford Campus community.

1. All registered student clubs are eligible for this award.
2. Nominations can be submitted by an individual student, club advisor, or a student group. A club may nominate itself.
3. Nominations are due to Gayle Riquier in room 2.17 or via email to Gayle.Riquier@Uconn.edu by 5:00 PM on Friday March 20, 2009

To nominate, submit a letter to the Student Activities Coordinator in room 2.17. In the letter, please address as many as the following questions as possible.

- How many members are in the organization?
- What was the organization's biggest accomplishment this year? (please describe in detail)
- In what ways has this organization contributed to campus life at UConn-Stamford and the surrounding community?
- Explain in what ways the organization is involved with leadership development within their organization, as well as their influence on the campus.
- In what ways has this organization shown creativity?
- In what ways has this organization contributed to co-curricular life at UConn-Stamford?
- In what ways is this organization unique from other organizations?
- Why do you think this organization is the most qualified to receive this award?

Please attach a schedule of events detailing meetings, events, and other activities in which the organization participated.
